Port Huron Statement of the Students for a Democratic Society, 1962

Final version as adopted June 15, 1962; this Table of Contents compiled from the Hayden-provided website document

I. INTRODUCTION: AGENDA FOR A GENERATION
   I.A We are the people of this generation...
      I.A.1 Maturing in complacency
      I.A.2 Events and paradoxes (“Unavoidable issues”)
           Nuclear war
           Discrimination
      I.A.3 The search for truly democratic alternatives
   I.B Values
      I.B.1 Making values explicit
      I.B.2 Humans as infinitely precious
      I.B.3 Human relationships
      I.B.4 Social systems / Participatory democracy
   I.C The Students
      I.C.1 Overcoming inner alienation
      I.C.2 Apathy
      I.C.3 Extracurricular life
      I.C.4 Academic life
      I.C.5 The academic bureaucracy
      I.C.6 The current function of the educational system
   I.D The Society Beyond
   I.E Politics without Publics
   I.F The Economy
      I.F.1 Living in Relative Comfort
      I.F.2 The Remote Control Economy
      I.F.3 The Military-Industrial Complex
      I.F.4 Military Industrial Politics
      I.F.5 Automation
      I.F.6 The Stance of Labor
   I.G Horizon (summary of the above)

II. THE INDIVIDUAL IN THE WARFARE STATE
   II.A The Warfare State (militarization weakens all aspects of civil society)
   II.B Deterrence Policy (nuclear war erases the idea of “national boundaries”)
   II.C The Colonial Revolution (the formerly-oppressed arise, but the US resists)
   II.D Anti-Communism (unreasoning anti-communism vs. democracy)
   II.E Communism and Foreign Policy (Fear and nuclear suicide vs. creating democracy at home and helping its growth in the world)
   II.F Discrimination (Denying rights to “non-whites” diminishes us all)
III. WHAT IS NEEDED?

III.A Ending the Cold War
   III.A.1 Universal controlled disarmament
   III.A.2 Disarmament as a political issue
   III.A.3 Acceptance of status quo possessions
   III.A.4 Experiments in disengagement and demilitarization

III.B The Industrialization of the World
   III.B.1 Eliminating hunger, poverty, disease, ignorance, violence, and exploitation
   III.B.2 Preparing for all nations the conditions of industrialization
   III.B.3 Public leadership for the world industrialization effort
   III.B.4 The development process as a way of ending the Cold War
   III.B.5 Commitment to spreading democratic institutions by example
   III.B.6 Basic economic institutions in the control of national, not foreign, agencies
   III.B.7 Foreign aid through international agencies
   III.B.8 Democratic theory and social revolutions

IV. TOWARDS AMERICAN DEMOCRACY

IV.A Goals of a domestic effort
   IV.A.1 Abolishing the political party stalemate IV.A.2 Political participation encouraged
   IV.A.3 Promotion of peaceful dissent
   IV.A.4 Corporations must be made publicly responsible IV.A.5 Allocation of resources based on social needs IV.A.6 Concentrating on genuine social priorities
      a. A program against poverty
      b. Civil rights
      c. Federal economic development
      d. The growing complex of "city" problems
      e. Mental health institutions
      f. Prisons
      g. Education
      h. Agricultural policies
      i. Science

IV.B Alternatives to Helplessness
   IV.B.1 The Southern civil rights movement
   IV.B.2 Peace
   IV.B.3 Organized labor
   IV.B.4 Liberal force in Congress
   IV.B.5 Revival of idealism

IV.C The University and Social Change
   IV.C.1-6 A New Left...

IV.D Commitment to stimulating this kind of social movement...