

A Manifesto For Now

50 years after the 1962 Port Huron Statement of the Students for a Democratic Society

The column on the left is an outline Table of Contents summarized from the 1962 Port Huron Statement. Use the column on the right to add notes about “What needs to be said now” to help create A Manifesto For Now – items that are relevant to today’s world and its issues and needs. (Website source: <http://manifesto4now.wordpress.com/resources/>)

| Port Huron Statement - 1962 Outline Table of Contents | A Manifesto For Now - 2012 Notes on “What needs to be said now ” |
|--|---|
| I. INTRODUCTION: AGENDA FOR A GENERATION | I. (WHERE WE'RE AT NOW) |
| I.A We are the people of this generation... I.A.1 Maturing in complacency I.A.2 Events and paradoxes (“Unavoidable issues”) Nuclear war Discrimination I.A.3 The search for truly democratic alternatives | (Current Problems / Issues...) |
| I.B Values I.B.1 Making values explicit I.B.2 Humans as infinitely precious I.B.3 Human relationships I.B.4 Social systems / Participatory democracy | |
| I.C The Students I.C.1 Overcoming inner alienation I.C.2 Apathy I.C.3 Extracurricular life I.C.4 Academic life I.C.5 The academic bureaucracy I.C.6 The current function of the educational system | |
| I.D The Society Beyond | |
| I.E Politics without Publics | |
| I.F The Economy I.F.1 Living in Relative Comfort I.F.2 The Remote Control Economy I.F.3 The Military-Industrial Complex I.F.4 Military Industrial Politics I.F.5 Automation I.F.6 The Stance of Labor | |
| I.G Horizon (summary of the above) | |
| II. THE INDIVIDUAL IN THE WARFARE STATE | II. (HOW WE GOT HERE) |
| II.A The Warfare State (militarization weakens all aspects of civil society) | (Causes / Dynamics...) |
| II.B Deterrence Policy (nuclear war erases the idea of “national boundaries”) | |
| II.C The Colonial Revolution (the formerly-oppressed arise, but the US resists) | |

| | |
|--|--|
| II.D Anti-Communism (unreasoning anti-communism vs. democracy) | |
| II.E Communism and Foreign Policy (fear and nuclear suicide vs. creating democracy at home and helping its growth in the world) | |
| II.F Discrimination (denying rights to “non-whites” diminishes us all) | |
| III. WHAT IS NEEDED? | III. (SOLUTIONS AT THE GLOBAL/INTERNATIONAL LEVEL) |
| III.A Ending the Cold War III.A.1 Universal controlled disarmament III.A.2 Disarmament as a political issue III.A.3 Acceptance of status quo possessions III.A.4 Experiments in disengagement & demilitarization | |
| III.B The Industrialization of the World III.B.1 Eliminating hunger, poverty, disease, ignorance, violence, and exploitation III.B.2 Preparing all nations for industrialization III.B.3 Public leadership for the world effort III.B.4 Development as a way of ending the Cold War III.B.5 Spreading democratic institutions by example III.B.6 Basic institutions in national, not foreign, control III.B.7 Foreign aid through international agencies III.B.8 Democratic theory and social revolutions | |
| IV. TOWARDS AMERICAN DEMOCRACY | IV. (SOLUTIONS AT THE LOCAL/NATIONAL LEVEL) |
| IV.A Goals of a Domestic Effort IV.A.1 Abolishing the political party stalemate IV.A.2 Political participation encouraged IV.A.3 Promotion of peaceful dissent IV.A.4 Corporations must be made publicly responsible IV.A.5 Allocation of resources based on social needs IV.A.6 Concentrating on genuine social priorities: A program against poverty; Civil rights; Federal economic development; The growing complex of "city" problems; Mental health institutions; Prisons; Education; Agricultural policies; Science | |
| IV.B Alternatives to Helplessness IV.B.1 The Southern civil rights movement IV.B.2 Peace IV.B.3 Organized labor IV.B.4 Liberal force in Congress IV.B.5 Revival of idealism | |
| IV.C The University and Social Change IV.C.1 - 6 A New Left will... | |
| IV.D Commitment to stimulating this kind of social movement... | |